Lo Kiddie,

You'd just aiter see all the pictures I've got now - and some of 'em framed too. One frame has Otto Koch Harlan Heward and you in it - mostly because of your smile and not for the way Heward has his arm hooked in yours. Old schoolmates I suppose - and all that stuff - but it makes me jealous. But what happened to some more of those pictures - did you have a stommy ache - or were you making faces at me? You'll pay for all this x x x

Capt. Brown sends an SOS (he's Division Radio officer) for Jessie not to get married till she sees him. You might encourage her in that cause Brownie's all right even if he has a mustache. I haven't la - la - la.

Oh and another frame has a picture of Mother & Bert, one of Sis, and one of you all in it and I like it lots. Wanna see it? Aw right come over to Montabans some day.

Today I've had a picture of our wedding in my mind, and it didn't go away all day. I saw two brown eyes staring out so bold the love and secrets of a wonderful heart - and it" left me with the most "homey" feeling. I'm going over the hill if they don't turn us loose from here pretty soon - sure enough.

Just finished a long letter to mother - this is her birthday - and I'm coaxing her to come to N.Y. before I arrive. Then we can send 'em home to make ready for us in Nevada while we do a bit of Honey-mooning over the Canadian Pacific - a stop at Vancouver, and Coquitlam - the boat to Frisco or Los Angeles or San Diego - oh we don't care - and then some day Reno and Elko - where - e - e - e - e - e.

Say sneaky if you didn't get the two money orders I sent - and if your allotment for Jan. isn't $125 you'll tell me won't you? aw twiglit. Don't tell me how much you have in the bank will you 'cause I want to kiss you awful hard when you do - and before and after too. Care?

So twiglit - Sweetheart - every thing is lovely and will be here before Feb. 29 - that's in 1970. XXXX Lover Tom XXXX
