Mrs. Wm. P. Waller,
506 W. 113th St.,
New York,
N. Y.

Thursday Feb. 13.

My Sweetheart,
a cold, clear, full-moon night after a beautiful spring day - and my heart's just overflowing with thoughts of home and you - see why can't it, come - this order home - I want it sure enough. So further disarrange the scene - Capt. Burns after being ordered to the 77th Div - an outfit that is soon to sail - came back today. Said that he'd no more than reported when he was given the order to return. maybe the 1st Div. has to do some more fighting well if there's more to do, let's have it over with so we can go home.

yesterday I spent running errands for myself in Cabling, mostly arranged to have my history printed so all the outfit can have a copy of it.
It will be ready some day. Also went to Newried and the 2nd Div.
Headquarters to see if I could find something of Darrel Dunkle's being killed. If I have a chance before I get home I'm going to talk with men from his and Frank Robbins'
