Tuesday Evening -

my Only Love.

I can't see a thing today except you with an arrow next to Old Baldy. Congratulations, Ruth, on the fruits of all your hard work in planning, and actually doing the work of getting Pi Phi. Delta Rho, and Pi Phi which is to follow, should take positive action toward making that piece of work the true example of fraternal devotion. You are the one real sister; and Nevada should never be allowed to forget it. I don't think I was ever quite so proud of you as right now, Rufus. You do more wonderful things all the time. Sometime just after you swing your indian clubs, when it is darkest. Kind a size up the things you have done during the last few years, give your self all the credit you deserve, and take a look at how well ^{these things} ~~they~~ have been done. I've done that for you several times, and it always makes me want to fold you up close, and kiss the cleverest girl in all the States until she cries, "enough." Congratulations again, Sweetheart.

Monday I hope to congratulate Pearl. I'm for leaving the house to turn you loose on the lot, and then sitting you handle the whole thing. You'll do the same next year and won't have to share any honors.

Had dinner with Mr. Barnes and Helen Helen Barnes last evening. Helen served a very fine meal, and we had lots of music to top it off with.

Miss M. made two trips to the store today. I just also brought you a Ray, and next you and mother. What great? Up to date. I was had a feast. We had dinner together and then married the Elks club.

cal parade from the grandstand. It was a beautiful spectacle, and I know I tried Miss M. feeling for how you would act when our horse passed. If you could have seen them marching thru to the music you would have followed down the center of the parade, I know.

I'm getting a whole new coat of skin.
The parker in my room must have some it getting up the floor each night. It's coming nearly over now tho, and except for a little patch good now tho, and notice it.

We write tomorrow night, love, - Jim going to stay home then. One night in succession is nearly too much for me, and it's late right now. We are growing tomorrow. the pretty growth every day, and the only trouble is in the absolutely lovely. Just all the good times find for me, and let the music and music I don't keep entertained - there is always something in looking for and always it is you - If I could just talk to you then a married husband or even a great high price. I'd just better. August is nearly here the and then take knows ???

Good night, my love, here's looks of good love - the love that grows for five long years and then love just long it's real love, and it's all for you -

P.S. The enclosed was sent at the request of mine. The cut is from the Times, for you. She likes you = So do I. Ha! Ha!
