

THPO
708 N. CENTER STREET
RENO, NEVADA

WORLD'S PANAMA-
PACIFIC
EXPOSITION
IN SAN FRANCISCO
1915

Miss Ruth Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Monday eve.

My Love -

a teensie note to say hello, and perhaps escape a ☹. nothing new has happened 'cept I have dedicated my means to ~~the~~ speedy settlement of all our troubles in L.A. The time slips by so quickly and nothing is accomplished. I am really disappointed with my self. It has made me determined - not disheartened.

Got two peachy letters from you today. Bless your heart - it's the best part of my day to come home ^{in the} every evening and find you waiting for me, with a cheery word, and a load of kisses. Ten hours of crabby customers, and hard work put a fellow in just the proper mood for that. I'm beginning to realize what a wonderful place Reno has been for me.

Last night after I scratched a line to you I dreamed to myself all about Lucie + Tommie for the last six years, and it was sure fun. The way we started - all the different developments and how wonderful each one seemed, and especially all the mean little tricks I played on you when I didn't care whether you minded or not. That was a long, long time ago Sweetheart and it's all different now. It's real love that I have for you, more than I have ever had for anything or person in my life before.
I want you all the time - I think of you always as my love ————— xx xx xx xx xx xx xx xx