RENO, NEVADA,

Thurs. Evening.

Rufus Darling.

I don't care if you did register a blank last night, 'cause today was a peach. & a nice long letter chuck full of you, that made me want you a crying lot.

I didn't know Bob was in Reno. I'd like to see him for a bit myself. He's a mighty good pal.
I don't know what I can tell you today.

I've been dead tired all week, and am more than that tonight. It seems that I no more than finish dinner when it's ~~half~~ half past eight. Read a bit and it's past my bed time. I'm sure getting an experience now and that's no joke.
Had to pay my dear lawyer $15 ~~attorney~~ appraisers fees yesterday. a few more showers baths like that, and Al Colon will have a mortgage on my life. I'm praying for aug. 16. Something has got to happen.

Miss Morrison saw that song "along came Ruth" today for the first time and brought it home beaming. She has lots of fun over you and me.
The landlady here has noticed things also. Aint it a fright. (See how crooked things go)

The sleepers sure got me - I gotta go. Sometime I'm going to write when I feel right cheerful and fresh. It's a cinch you deserve a good letter - yours are so wonderful. Really I'd go around entirely vacant for weeks at a time if I didn't have something to tie me to the things I really enjoy and love. I seem to be a thing apart here - and it's my state of mind entirely, for there are plenty here to give attention. I can't tell what it is, but I can promise that it won't last long. ~~It's~~

I want to love you Sweetheart. Just sit a moment, and see me doing the same thinking about you - thinking how wonderful it is to hold you tight and kiss and kiss. Thinking how I'd like to look away down deep in your eyes, and just look right into you, and see you and me together within. Smile along with me Sweetie it's good exercise. Good-night and love to you
