

Ruth Ann Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Wednesday - 10 o'clock

Deanie Girl -

Covers rolled back - the clock wound - Tommy in pajamas - time for a letter to sweetheart. Here's the answer to your letter of today ☺. I expect the same in answer to mine of yesterday - Final score ☺ to ☺ - ten inning game.

Sat. Presy's telegram tonight - of course you know all about it. Instantly I wired Stane + Webster for prospects etc. to Pres. telling him I'd let him know in a day or so, and to Harsenman for advice and counsel in the matter. You know my oath about teaching school - but $1,400 for ten months easy work, and no SOW in sight is rather alluring. I'm gonna pray that I don't have to take it. I'd sure like to talk to you about the whole thing right now. Tell me what you think.

Will let it go with this note tonight. Perhaps soon I'll write you a long letter... May?! I'd like to write one long enough to get in - then I could come to see you, and talk a lot to you. I'm lovin' you tho' sweetheart, harder every day, and I'm wantin' you too. Here are some good long kisses for my love. ☺☺☺☺☺☺ You x x x x,