Tuesday night - 10.30

Savin' child.

Just going to bed and want to say goo-night.
I've had three of the best letters you ever wrote these last two days, and sure wish I could answer them, but I'm awful tired. Too much doing these days. (or nights rather).

Am expecting to hear from Prexy and Haseeman every day. The Sparks idea makes "die Brosse" appeal to me, and here's a big hope. I wonder if it will mean a series of late nights for you another whole year. It will if I have my say - but if better judgement can rule - well be moderate.

Your letters were truly beautiful. I wanted to pack up for Reno on the spot - I was that thrilled. Put a cross on this letter and I'll tell you all about Sweet-lake Park some day - & (that's reflections on the water)

Good night, love. As we get closer together my heart is starting to flutter. I want you for myself just a little while - and that right soon. Maybe I'm coming. Aug. 6 per soon eh?
Love from Sam xx xx x
