Dear Kid

Friday Morning.

☺ for me yesterday, but honest honey kid you know where all the time went & how. The meeting for tonight, all planned by 8 of us annual members with Nevada chairman, promises to be a humdinger! Miss Bentley really has been the chairman cause she's put me up to everything. Goah! I've learned a heap!!

Your letters come just before evening auditorium & I'm all aglow!
The girls tease — but just so's the letters come — does care nicht?!

I gotta rehearse that "HELLP" yarn before I spring it! But it sounds like it'll be surprising. Yes you wait till quiet hour — no I gotta sleep!

I'm wild about this outdoor snoozing + I just shudder at the idea of sleeping in side. Last night, this morning I mean, I wakes up + my pillow + head were sopping wet. It was raining.
I looked around + all the kids had pulled under shelter. They said it had been raining the most of the night. I pulled inside + put on some dry clothes + slept harder than ever. See! my hair is wonderfully curly now after it's all night soak!

Send the next letters to Y.W.C.A. Hotel, Jones St., San Fran. No that until I hang another flag. See? Gotta hear from you!!!

Here's hoping the newly appointed lawyer does his dirty fast! I'll have to see you + why can't those lawyers understand!
The bell tolls + tra! la! Angel ch - it's!! With a mad desire to hug you up tight + tell you over + over again how I love it!! want you!! all from your

Sneaky.
