My Dear Boy.

you will get a box of candy. with this mail those girls are so popular they have had no time to make candy. now listen to something that grieves me very much. this was Guild day. Eva was home alone. Westall came. he would not come in. so Eva entertained him on the porch I came home. three quarters of an hour after he left. he was in a hurry. he said. that I was not at home. Bert called up the P.O. house. someone said he was at the Golden. he called up. also the Overland. Mc Kissick + Riverside. he was at neither hotel. I wanted him over. in the evening. to assist the girls to make the candy. they are hurrying to finish it then go to the train. to see him, and give him the box. I do hope they will see him. Keep the music until you return. we have some new.

all hands went to see the Tiki Tok man Bert saw it the three performed the last one Bert Hurst took Jackson + Bert in a lower box. I chaperoned six girls Saturday evening Margaret Illington is the next. Eva is going with Neal Barber. talk about winter in Nevada. we are having California weather. all doors & windows open. what day are you coming home. I expect this will be my last letter, as it is the last envelope I have. I am trying to fill this paper. but I cannot think of any more to say. just remember me to all. in Fairview.

your loving Mother.

Eight O'clock. the Condy
