

PACIFIC COAST STEAMSHIP COMPANY

ON BOARD S. S. GOVERNOR

Monday morn.

Dommy, Dommy, I have thinkin' what a grand old trip 'twould be if you were here beside me singin'
"And she's all the world to me!"

* * * * *

And the sea is all over us, so if you can read it, you're some place near a genius.

"Worst trip we've had this year - that what they all say!"

But there's a good lively crowd on board, so what more? - 'cept you.

yesterday morning just two of us girls were at breakfast, and those crazy brats tried every way to make us sick. In the middle of things I left to walk & walk. Some Walker I am already, son.

Funniest thing, — this is the first time this boat has sailed on a different schedule & no one knows what it is going to do.

We're due in Victoria about 4 this aft., & back to Seattle about midnight.

This is surely the "slow train thro' Arkansas", but we should get when the whole summer

is still before us.

Association has everything to do with curly hair. No fooling, Dom, sea breezes are great & curl papers have been heaved overboard.

Because of a new law passed in B.C. none of the passengers can get off the steamer at Victoria. Curse it! — and we're there two hours.

There's a man from U. of C. on board. He wants to know the different locals at U. & N.

From "Hungry" I gathered quite a bit of info as to Sign plans. Next year they petition Beta Theta Pi — no doubt you're wise too; but I asked for a comparison from this U. of C. lad, and "your future" looms much more prominent.

Those two letters at home for me!! I'm gonna start out to walk soon. Am I sufficiently far away? Cheese and crackers and apricots!! I'm a lonely woman, even with all this excitement. All of which goes to show, I'm more yours than ever. At this rate, there won't be any left for anyone else: — that's when I'll be the happiest.

Love
You, Ruzie.
